HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM
AND
HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE R.KANTHA RAO

WRIT PETITION No.17902 of 2010

ORDER: (per Hon'ble Sri Justice Goda Raghuram)

The Writ Petition is filed by the applicant in O.A.No.4672 of 2010 aggrieved by the order of the learned A.P. Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad, dated 13.07.2010, declining grant of interim relief as sought in the O.A. by recording as under:

> "It is not a fit case for granting interim order.
> Admit. Issue notice to the respondents, returnable in 4 weeks."

It is axiomatic that the Tribunal is required to record reasons either for granting or declining relief, substantive or ad interim since reasons are the links to the conclusions arrived at by judicial or quasi-judicial bodies and the facts of which the conclusions are based, particularly, in the context of the fact that the parties aggrieved by any order of the Tribunal have a remedy under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. (see Bhagat Raja v. Union of India[1]).

On the aforesaid analysis, the laconic and non-speaking order of the Tribunal dated 13.07.2010 declining interim relief in O.A.No.4672 of 2010 cannot be sustained and is accordingly quashed. The Tribunal will consider the application for interim relief and pass a reasoned order. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed as an expression by this Court on the petitioner's eligibility for grant of or otherwise of an interim order and the learned Tribunal will proceed to consider grant of interim relief on merits.

The Writ Petition is allowed as above at the stage of admission. There shall be no order as to costs.
